

Best Kept Village Competition
Haughton 2014
and Haughton in Bloom

Haughton and District Garden Guild sponsors the

Best Kept Garden Competition

2014

All gardens and hanging baskets (including trough baskets fixed to a wall) within the 30 mph limit will receive free and automatic entry into the competition.

Independent judges will view the gardens from public areas such as paths and roads in July

The judges' decision will be final

Small gardens will comprise an area of less than approximately 900 sq ft (i.e. 30' x 30')

Winners will be announced at an Awards Evening in August

Category	Prize (donated by The Garden Guild)
Best Kept Garden	£30 voucher and certificate
Best Kept Small Garden	£20 voucher and certificate
Best Hanging Basket(s)	£15 voucher and certificate
Highly Commended Gardens(x3)	£10 voucher and certificate
Highly Commended Hanging Basket(s)(x2)	£5 voucher and certificate

The competition supports Haughton's involvement in the Best Kept Village and Heart of England in Bloom initiatives by encouraging participation and enhancing community spirit.

Growing for Gold
The RHS's 2014 theme, celebrating 50 years of Britain in Bloom, has an emphasis on yellow plants which attract pollinators

