

Haughton in Bloom in April

Part 2

Still a little bit of country in our village - the glebe field in spring

New planting in the Rectory Lane plot, under the dappled shade of the blossom.

A female orange tip butterfly in Watery Lane

At Four Lanes End

A Back Lane bee

The nettle bed in the small copse at the playing field is buzzing with bees.

This hole in the south bank of the Grassy Lane brook is home to a large red-tailed bumble bee.

A mistle thrush catches worms near the log pile at the west end of Grassy Lane.

Crab apple blossom in Dale Lane ...

... and the first may blossom in Back Lane

Volunteers happy in their Tidying-up work

*Colourful Newport Road
beds*

The tractor tyre wallflowers, bellis and tulips are showing up beautifully against the newly-mown grass.

*Four volunteers,
pausing in their work to give a smile.*

Tranquillity in a Watery Lane meadow ...

... and danger for small creatures in Dale Lane.

*This bedraggled dandelion has attracted something
other than a bee.*

*Our first
Grassy Lane
buttercup*

By a Back Lane hedge ... Garlic mustard or Jack-by-the-hedge

Ramsons in Brazenhill Lane

This red campion is at the east end of Grassy Lane.

Newport Road

*A colourful west-end
exit to the village*

Wildflower seed sowing in the playing field copse

Tidy-up teams enjoying their evening work

