

Haughton in Bloom in August

*Haughton
wins Best Kept
Large Village
in Staffordshire
for the third successive year.*

Recycled tractor tyres, beds and planters are in full colour.

*Neatly-mown grass, a sustainable border and
the Sunday School
children's pots enhance
the churchyard.*

A mixture of trees, shrubs and bedding plants fill the Newport Road beds and borders. Many of the bedding plants have been chosen to attract bees and other insects.

These views may soon change forever. A planning application for 11 houses on the glebe field is expected soon.

Ancient yews in the churchyard are safe from development. This one stands in the churchyard ecology area.

This oak tree in Brazenhill Lane, together with other trees and hedges surrounding the glebe field, is to be retained if the development goes ahead.

The Grassy Lane has been strimmed so that it can be assessed for the possibility of an all weather surface to make it more accessible to pedestrians.

Prizes for the Best Kept Gardens and Hanging Baskets are presented at an awards' evening.

This garden won 1st place in the Best Kept Large Garden category and looks just as stunning a month after it was judged.

After months behind scaffolding the Shropshire emerges with a new look.

Rural harmony in the wider parish

Flowers, seeds and berries on the Greenway

