

*Haughton
in Bloom
in July*

Part 1

Haughton in Bloom is almost ready for the arrival at the Village Hall of the Heart of England in Bloom judges on Wednesday 2nd July.

 heart of england in Bloom

Haughton
Growing 4 Gold

50
years

Haughton
Growing
4 Gold

VILLAGE HALL

*This special sign has been placed above a hanging basket
at the Village Hall.*

Haughton
Growing
4 Gold

50
years

The results of a community hedgehog survey are on display at the Village Hall.

The Heart of England in Bloom judges pause to view the Best Kept Village prize tree and plaque.

These tubs are flourishing in the warm weather on the corner of Newport Road and Jolt Lane.

The Newport Road beds are beginning to bloom.

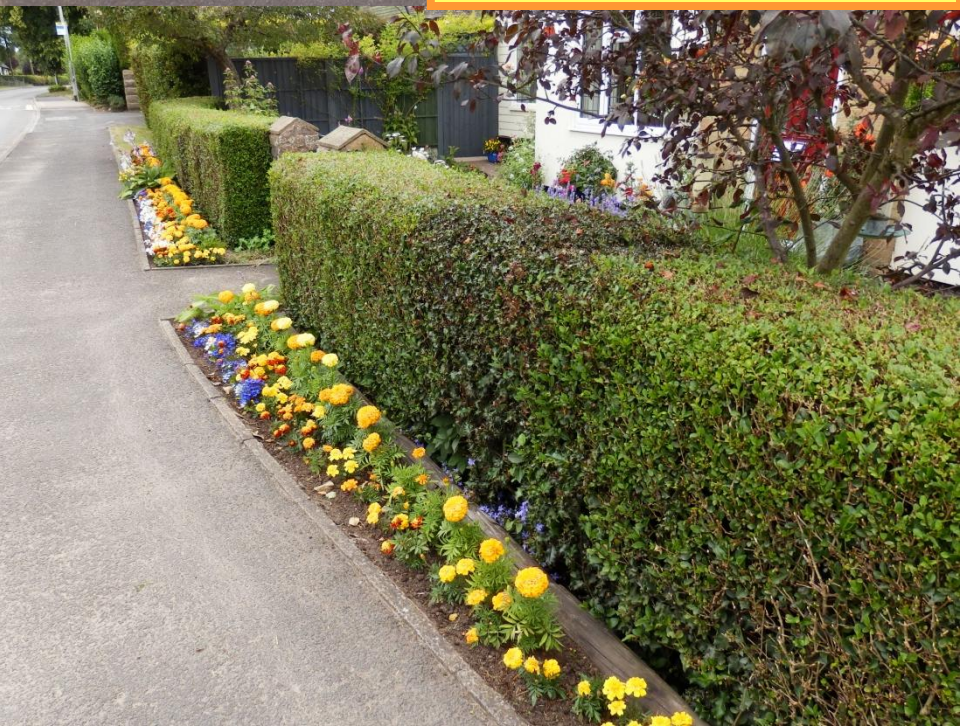

Thriving and colourful plants in beds and borders

Colourful private gardens

'Growing for gold' borders are everywhere.

Great willowherb in Watery Lane

Tufted vetch in Watery Lane

Lavatera in full bloom in Watery Lane

Hedge bindweed in Dale Lane

Blackberries are forming on the brambles in Dale Lane.

Hawthorn berries in Dale Lane

This black horehound can be found in Dale Lane.

Back Lane cornfield

Scented mayweed in Back Lane

Grassy Lane
hogweed

HALL

Heart of England
in Bloom

Haughton
Growing
World

50
years

The First World War War commemorative poppies are in flower at the Village Hall.

A perfect match

This private gardens is now a blaze of colour.

More colourful private gardens

Thistles in Dale Lane

Bee on pink Dale Lane bramble

Two mole hills have appeared in Grassy Lane.

These coots are cutting a swathe through the duckweed at Four Lanes End.

A mallard family crosses Dale Lane from field to pond.

*Bee on Sunday School pot
sunflower*