

Haughton in Bloom in October

There are still some colourful flowers, but berries are appearing, too. These formed on the mountain ash, our prize for winning Best Kept Large Village in Staffordshire in 2011.

There are signs of autumn in the churchyard - turning leaves, pretty pansies and hundreds of berries on the yew.

The Grassy Lane is looking difficult to use again as the damp weather returns.

The recycled tractor tyres have their new plants in recycled compost.

A mixture of permanent perennials and seasonal bedding results in all-year-round interest.

Divisional winner of

Pubs in Bloom 2013

This certificate has been awarded to the

Bell Inn

Haughton

1st October 2013

Chris Jones

Chris Jones

Divisional Director, Enterprise Inns plc

The Bell wins its second award and hosts the harvest auction for charity.

