

BEST KEPT VILLAGE & HEART OF ENGLAND in BLOOM

Update - SEPTEMBER 2012

HAUGHTON WINS AWARDS AT HEART OF ENGLAND IN BLOOM – AGAIN!!

Haughton has again received a Silver-Gilt award at the annual Heart of England in Bloom competition presentation event. The leaders of the team, Derek Warbrick and Maxine Hutt, are pictured following the presentation.

A special award of a Certificate of Merit was also issued to Bert Moore for his exceptional commitment to the village and his own prize winning garden.

The judges' visit to the village attracted comments relating to "an enjoyable and informative presentation. Haughton is well cared for, has civic pride in abundance and is cherished by its proactive and inclusive community."

Other highlights included residential front gardens, village bedding schemes, ash tree and totem pole with planters, Church of St Giles, the shops with individual planters, street cleanliness, planting at The Bell Inn, updated playground equipment and well maintained playing fields, successful Best Kept Garden competition, children's posters, use of logo on all promotional material, etc.
